

IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

---

CASE NO.

---

PALM BEACH COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD,

Petitioner,

vs.

KATHERINE HARRIS, as Secretary of State of the State of Florida, and ROBERT A. BUTTERWORTH, as Attorney General of the State of Florida,

Respondents,

---

MOTION TO INTERVENE
OF GEORGE W. BUSH

George W. Bush moves to intervene as a full party defendant in this action on the following grounds:

1. The initial vote tabulation and the statutory recount tabulation resulted in a majority of votes being cast for George W. Bush electors in the State of Florida. The plaintiffs seek a hearing on issues that could ultimately affect that result, with an enormous resulting impact upon the interests of Mr. Bush.
2. The interests of Mr. Bush in the outcome of this litigation clearly meet the requirements for intervention set forth in Rule 1.230, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.
