"I am excited to stand not just behind the American people's choice for the next President of the United States of America but my personal choice Mr. Donald Trump. Mr. Trump is a clear leader and visionary in the construction, business and entertainment world but not also in politics.

"When an outsider like Mr. Trump wins against all odds and against the political establishment machine, it exemplifies his political savvy and business acumen. Americans root and love to see the underdog given a chance and eventually win.

"My win was against a 24-year incumbent against the establishment and all odds – people said we didn't have a prayer. Donald illustrates that in America, regardless of your background, regardless of your circumstances, if you are willing to get into the ring and work hard you can succeed. That's what makes the American Dream so special and unique. I proudly support Donald Trump for president of the United States of America and look forward to helping him make America not only Great again but better."
